10 PIN BOWLING WORLD CUP

Town N Country Bowl, Vancouver hosted the Provincial finals on January 24, 2015. After the eight game qualifying round the top three men went into a stepladder final. The 3rd place qualifier JORDAN JUNG, Town N Country Bowl, Vancouver bowled defending champion CHRIS BUNNAGE, McCurdy Bowling Centre, Kelowna. Chris won the match 254 to 210. Chris then went on to meet the 1st place qualifier RYAN REID, Town N Country Bowl, Vancouver. Chris defeated Ryan 214 to 183. As this event has a double knockout Chris & Ryan bowled a 2nd game – Ryan defeated Chris in this match to regain his Provincial title 188 to 145.

In the ladies division the 8 game qualifying round was won by JENNIFER PARK of Splitsville Entertainment Centre, Nanaimo. The ladies division did not have a stepladder final due to the limited entries. The National Championships are being held in Edmonton, Alberta on March 21st & 22nd.

Good luck to both Ryan & Jennifer. Both Provincial Champions have previous National experience and hopefully this will help them in their endeavour to become National Champions.

IN MEMORY

BARBARA VERHAEGHE passed away on December 14, 2014. Barbara was a former member of the Master Bowlers Association of BC representing BC at National Championships.

DAVE GOURLEY passed away on March 3, 2015. Dave was a member of many BC teams represented at Nationals Championships. Dave started early as a youth bowler in Burnaby and went on to win back to back Senior singles titles at the YBC National Championships. Dave loved bowling so it wasn't a surprise when he became the proprietor of Capri Lanes, Kelowna.

Our deepest sympathy and prayers go out to all the family and friends. Bowling has brought many of us together and for that we should be grateful otherwise our paths may have never crossed. Remember the joy that has been brought to your life by knowing these friends.
